

Membership Rules

- Library membership will be given to admitting students after they submit the library membership form.
- Library membership for students is valid for only one academic year; you must submit a new membership form for the next academic year.
- All the students and staff shall sign in the gate register at the entrance of the library
- Deposit your personal belongings at the property counter.
- Members are not allowed to borrow books on account of another member.
- Book bank facility will be providing to economically poor and needy students for available sets of book.
- If book lost, fine shall be charged along with price of book.